WORDS OF WELCOME

Rev. Hope Molozaiy

CALL TO WORSHIP & OPENING PRAYER

One: We gather in the Light that was before, is now, and ever will be.

All: We seek the Light's ancient wisdom.

One: We gather in the Light that is God's continuing gift.

All: We live into the Light's new wisdom.

One: We gather in the Light that is our own, emerging anew each day.

All: We seek to share this wisdom and to be nurtured in the Light from Bethlehem's cradle.

One: Let us pray: O God of past years and new years,
we recognize all time is in your hands.

We set out on new journeys, expecting twists and turns along the way.

We are prepared for challenges and anticipating great joy.

We set out as believers, trusting that you will journey with us, no matter what.

Help us to travel boldly with faith, and to live expectantly under your Spirit's guidance.

All: Starting now, O Lord, here in worship on this first Sunday of a new year, we promise to listen faithfully for your voice and to follow your direction. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

HYMN

"All Beautiful the March of Days"

#434

Verse 1:

All beautiful the march of days, as seasons come and go;
The hand that shaped the rose has formed the crystals of the snow,
Has sent the silver frost of heaven, the flowing waters sealed,
And laid a silent loveliness on hill and wood and field.

Verse 2:

O'er brilliant fields of sparkling snow the radiant morns unfold;
The solemn splendors of the night burn brightly through the cold.
Life mounts in every pulsing vein, love deepens round the hearth,
And clearer sounds the angel hymn, "Good will to all on earth."

Verse 3:

O you from whose unfathomed law the year in beauty flows,
Yourself the splendid vision seen in crystal and in rose,
The passing days with grace declare and passing nights proclaim,
In ever changing words of light, the wonder of your name.

Tune: Forest Green C.M.D. | Frances W. Wile 1910 alt | Traditional English Melody

WORD FOR ALL AGES - It's that time of year when we traditionally receive a new Star Word for the coming year. What was your Star Word for 2020? How did that work out in your life? If you had one word of blessing to put upon 2021, what one word would you choose?

SONG RESPONSE "This Little Light of Mine" #524

This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
Let it shine, Let it shine, Let it shine.

SCRIPTURE READING

The Gospel according to Luke 1:41-52 (NRSV)

Now every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival. When the festival was ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends. When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety." He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.

HYMN "I Wonder as I Wander" #119, Red Hymnal

Verse 1:

I wonder as I wander, out under the sky,
How Jesus the Savior did come for to die
For poor ord'nary people like you and like I;
I wonder as I wander, out under the sky.

Verse 2:

When Mary birthed Jesus, 'twas in a cow's stall
With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all.
But high from God's heaven a starlight did fall,
The promise of ages it did then recall.

Verse 3:

If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing,
A star in the sky or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing,
He surely could have it, 'cause he was the King.

Verse 4:

I wonder as I wander, out under the sky,
How Jesus the Savior did come for die
For poor ord'nary people like you and like I;
I wonder as I wander, out under the sky.

CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Invitation

Communion Prayer

Pastor: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to God.

Pastor: Let us give thanks to God Most High.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

In response to your infinite love, O God, we rejoice to give thanks at all times and in all places, to the One who created order out of chaos, who penetrated the night of sin with the light of the world, and whose light cannot be overcome by human resistance. Thank you for sending a star to guide the wise to Christ, and for all the signs and witnesses in every generation that lead us to your Christ. Thank you that Christ lived among sinners, preached good news to the poor, proclaimed release to those shackled by ignorance, prejudice, and injustice, and brought life to light by living the one true life.

We bless you, God, for the gifts you have lavishly given us, though undeserving: for new definitions of power and wisdom, for removing the distance caused by sin, for calling all people to discipleship and community, for sending courage to those who struggle for justice and peace, for your presence in trial and rejoicing.

Mighty God, we worship and praise you. With magi and shepherds, apostles and martyrs, we sing your glory, and for the love of Christ, we pray together, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Words of Remembering

Now as they were eating together, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take and eat. This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way after supper, Jesus took a cup, and after giving thanks, gave it to them and said, “Drink of it, all of you; This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you and many. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Prayer of Consecration – Place your hands over the bread and cup you have before you as we pray:

Come, Holy Spirit, come. Come to each table that’s been prepared for you today. Bless each bite and each sip that we share in your name today. Bless each of us in our eating and drinking; wherever we are, let our eyes be opened, so that we might recognize the risen Christ in our midst, in each other, and in all for whom Christ lived and died. Amen.

We Share the Elements – Partake of what is before you as you share your table with Christ.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (unison)

Generous God,
in this celebration we have looked back to the past, to what is done and gone.
With Jesus in our midst, we look forward now to the future.
Let neither the past nor the present, nor the future,
neither joys nor sorrows ever separate us from him.
Let your Son be the center of our lives,
and the bond that binds us to you and to one another,
in faith, hope and lasting love.
Go forward with us through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG RESPONSE

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all creatures here below.
Praise God, above, you heavenly host.
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.

OFFERING Invitation to Give – We are so thankful for the continued financial support that we have continued to receive during this time!

Though we rarely see each other in person these days, our church is still: providing worship; providing Sunday school for our church kids; connecting members with each other; supporting neighbors in need, locally and further away. We believe those things are parts of God’s calling for us in this place and we can do them because of steady financial support.

You may always send your check directly to the church at PO Box 246, Richmond IL, 60071.

Prayer of Dedication – You might pray as you write your check and address your envelope to the church... Generous God, You have provided a world that meets our every need, and invited us to co-create with You. Receive our offerings. Bless them so they might help create Your kingdom here on earth, even now. Amen.
